

*5TH GRADUATION BULLETIN
DECEMBER 2017*

INTRODUCTION

Maasai Mara University was chartered on 12th February, 2013. The University's competitive advantage lies in the strategic location as a gateway to Maasai Mara National Reserve which is a worldwide household name. It is also close to Mau Forest, one of the most important water towers in the region, but highly threatened; it also lies within both a major livestock and wheat production area in the nation. These intertwined with the rich Maasai culture makes the University the ideal place for studies in science, livestock, agriculture, heritage, tourism, wildlife and natural resources which we have identified as our flagship courses.

VISION

To be a world class university committed to academic excellence for development

MISSION

To provide Quality University education through innovative teaching, research and consultancy services for development

MOTTO

MESSAGE FROM THE CHANCELLOR, MAASAI MARA UNIVERSITY

Prof. Philip Ngunjiri, PhD,
ARCH., L. ARCH
The Chancellor

It is my pleasure to welcome all of you to the 4th Maasai Mara University graduation ceremony. Your presence today on this auspicious occasion is a clear indication that Maasai Mara University continues to enjoy unwavering support from all our esteemed stakeholders and well-wishers. We are indeed grateful for this great gesture.

The 2015-2016 academic year has witnessed notable successes and challenges. I wish to most sincerely thank our various supporters who played critical roles in helping the University surmount the challenges. In this regard, we are indebted to the Ministry of Education, Science and Technology for the guidance, oversight and financial support.

I take this opportunity to highlight some of the strategic initiatives undertaken to improve productivity of our staff and quality of students. First, I laud the University for restructuring the academic calendar to enable members of the academia engage in research during the University annual recess. I implore the academia to use the chance apply for grants and conduct research that will transform the country.

Second, the university has reviewed her programmes in line with the demands of Kenya's Vision 2030 and soon they will be approved by Commission for University Education. These changes are in line with the University's vision of being a world class University. The reviewed curricula bridges the programmes gap which impacted on our student population. We anticipate an increased student population with the diverse market driven programmes.

Third, I take this opportunity to thank the University for launching student mentorship programmes within the Schools through the appointment of School Academic and Service Officers. I appreciate our academic staff for the mentorship during the academic voyage and the administrative staff for supporting the teaching and research functions. The same goes to the students and their leadership for shunning disruptive behaviors and embracing dialogue which created an atmosphere of stability and hence a peaceful academic year.

I am happy that the total number of graduands has increased this year. The University's objective is to develop in you the highest degree of creative thought which ultimately will help you make immense contributions to the needs of our counties, nation and the world. We expect you to be socially responsible leaders with a zeal to transforming the society. These collective efforts will help improve the Maasai Mara University image and ultimately help us achieve our vision. Congratulations on your Graduation!

"We expect you to be socially responsible leaders with a zeal to transforming the society"

MESSAGE FROM
THE CABINET SECRETARY, MINISTRY OF EDUCATION, SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY

Dr. Fred O. Matiang'i, PhD, EBS

Cabinet Secretary, Ministry of Education, Science & Technology

I am delighted to be with you during this historic and auspicious occasion of the fourth graduation ceremony of Maasai Mara University. I wish to congratulate this year's graduands for their determination and diligence which has made them realize their dreams. Your graduation is an indication that you have been transformed and are ready to participate in driving Kenya's development agenda. This agenda is geared towards the realization of Vision 2030 and the Sustainable Development Goals.

I note with gratitude the increased student population and infrastructural development. Today's graduation ceremony has more graduands as compared to last year. Currently, the university is building an ultra-modern lecture theatre and has also completed a ladies' hostel that can accommodate 2500 students.

I am happy that the University has endeavoured to establish international linkages commensurate with its ecological brand. The gains that the University has made through her collaboration with Sino-Africa Joint Research Centre, Chinese Academy of Science (SAJOREC), the establishment of a sewage treatment plant and a botanical garden is indeed commendable.

I appeal to the University is to continue expanding its facilities and mounting more market driven academic programmes without compromising on quality. This will enable the institution produce competent human capital with the aim of meeting the ever-increasing labour market demands.

The Ministry is aware of the challenges the academic institutions of higher learning are facing due to the ever increasing demand for University education. Despite the limited resources the Government will continue to make efforts in supporting the development of the institution in line with Vision 2030. To this end, the government has established the University Funding Board to help bridge capitation challenges faced by public universities.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the university Council and Management for the prudent utilization and management of resources and for steering the University from a humble background to the current status. The future indeed looks bright.

The government's vision is to transform the country into a technological based knowledge economy and Universities need to play the critical role of developing the needed human resource that is knowledgeable in technological and ICT skills. I believe Maasai Mara is playing this crucial role by integrating ICT skills in its academic programmes.

I congratulate the graduands of 2016 for the tremendous achievement and wish them well as they join the rest of the country to make their contribution in nation building.

"The government's vision is to transform the country into a technological based knowledge economy"

MESSAGE FROM

THE PRINCIPAL SECRETARY, STATE DEPARTMENT OF UNIVERSITY (HIGHER) EDUCATION, MINISTRY OF
EDUCATION, SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY

Prof. Collette A. Suda,
PhD, FKNAS, EBS
Principal Secretary, University Education

I wish to congratulate the class of 2016 for their exceptional achievement. May I congratulate all the stakeholders for their efforts that have culminated in today's momentous occasion.

I am happy that as an institution, you have continued to make progress towards making Maasai Mara University a World Class University. I am impressed with the curricula review initiatives aimed at increasing your competitive advantage regionally and internationally. The university has also made efforts to automate its services thus ensuring effective delivery of services.

The mandate of Universities is teaching and research. The initiatives undertaken of expanding the library collections and collaborations for joint research and student exchange programmes with different Universities are commendable. The entrepreneurial and innovative spirit should guide our research and teaching endeavours to help supplement government support.

To the graduands, I wish to encourage you to take advantage of the existing opportunities locally and internationally to grow your careers. With the knowledge and skills acquired coupled with your innovative and creative minds, you are capable of effectively competing in the job market and contributing to the national development. We expect a socially responsible citizenry to forge a just society in which we shall all live in peace and prosperity.

This graduation marks the actualization of the primary mission of higher education. I believe that graduands have been prepared by the University and are ready to face the economic, social and political challenges. May the Almighty guide you in your future endeavours. Congratulations!

"This graduation marks the actualization of the primary mission of higher education"

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF COUNCIL

On behalf of the Maasai Mara University Council, I congratulate the graduating class of 2016 on their academic feat that has culminated in today's auspicious occasion. We celebrate the efforts of the students along with the support of parents, guardians and lecturers that have contributed to the successful completion of their academic endeavours.

Our strategic management initiatives are driven by a single major goal: efficient service delivery to all our stake holders. To this end, the University has developed a strategic plan aligned to its mandate which is teaching, research, consultancy, community and outreach services. I take this opportunity to thank the Government of Kenya, through the Ministry of Education, Science and Technology for its continued support through financial grants for recurrent capital expenditure that has enabled the University to realize its mandate.

The University has continued to invest her resources in key infrastructural developments to deal with the challenges of inadequate accommodation and lecture rooms. I note with appreciation that an 850 bed capacity ladies' hostel has been completed and occupied. The first phase of the construction of tuition block is expected to be completed before the commencement of the next academic year. However, with the ever growing population of the University, we appeal to our government through the Ministry of Education, Science and Technology for increased funding to enable University effectively deliver its mandate.

Other strategic initiatives undertaken by the University are curricula review and automation of service delivery systems manifest in the submitted curricula to Commission for University Education (CUE) and the installation of the Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) system. The Council will ensure that all the activities of the University are in tandem with the strategic plan. This will improve the quality of academic programmes and services to our students.

I wish to call upon the graduands to have a positive mental attitude as they leave the University. There is no question that in proving yourself equal to the task of fulfilling degree requirements at the University, you have made a lasting and powerful statement about your character. The differentiating hallmarks of our graduates among others include self-discipline, resourcefulness and the ability to finish what you started, in spite of challenges you encounter along the way. May, I finally take this opportunity to wish all graduands the very best in their future endeavors.

"The differentiating hallmarks of our graduates among others include self-discipline, resourcefulness and the ability to finish what you started"

MESSAGE FROM

THE VICE-CHANCELLOR

Prof. Mary K. Walingo, PhD,
MKNAS, EBS
Vice-Chancellor

I welcome you all to the 4th Maasai Mara university graduation ceremony. I would like to congratulate graduands for the hard work, parents and guardians for the sacrifices made, entire University staff for the various roles played in the academic journey of the graduands culminating to this auspicious occasion.

Today, the University is honoured to present over 1400 graduands into the labour market. They are graduating in a rich array of competitive programmes offered by the University at PhD, Masters, Bachelor's Degree and Diploma levels. Our major goal is to produce graduates who can make a difference in the various aspects of national development.

Maasai Mara University has aligned its activities with the following strategic goals: increasing student population, reviewing curricula, establishing linkages and collaborations, infrastructural development and automating services. Indeed, the output signals marked improvement in all our strategic initiatives.

Following the strategic direction taken, we have witnessed an increased student population from 5,000 in 2013 slightly above 10,000 currently. To cater for the diverse needs of the students, the University has reviewed her curricula and increased the number of programmes offered to 52. These programmes are awaiting approval by the commission for University education.

In terms of infrastructural development to support the increased student population, the University has completed an 850 bed capacity female hostel and the construction of a tuition block to be completed before the next academic year is ongoing.

The University continues to expand her collaboration, linkages and partnership initiatives with internationally renowned Universities as evidenced by the signed Memoranda of Undertaking with several Universities in U.K and China. The outcomes of the initiatives are scholarships for our students, engagement in joint research and improved infrastructural facilities. The collaboration fruits are manifest in the Botanical Garden, a research centre for ethnomedicine plants of Kenya- a collaboration between Chinese Academy of Sciences and Maasai Mara University.

Through proposals from members of academia to several institutions, the University has acquired texts and equipment to support the current and proposed academic programmes. The University library acquired 17000 volumes of books from textbook change Canada, received donation of medical equipment from East Africa partnership and 400 computers from computer Aid International in the U.K. The equipment and books already in the port of Mombasa awaiting the clearing process. I congratulate our staff members whose effort enabled the University acquire these important resources.

The University has made strides in enhancing service delivery with its publics and stakeholders. The automation of services through ERP (Enterprise Resource Planning) system is ongoing. All functions of student's admission and registration, human resources and financial management systems have been integrated into one administrative system. This will improve our service delivery systems to all our clients.

To the graduands,

Here it is at last- your convocation and graduation day. This is indeed among the few occasions that hold as much pride and significance for you and for those who supported you along the way.

What next?

Some already have answers to this commonly asked question: a job beckoning for what you hope will be a fulfilling career in the private, public or non-profit sectors, an entrepreneurial pursuit, or perhaps post-graduate school. For others, the way forward is still to be determined. No matter your chosen path, I encourage all of you to recognize the tremendous significance of your achievements in making the transition from student to graduate and to allow your success to be a source of pride in the present and confidence for the future.

One final thought – graduation should never mean goodbye. As an MMU alumni, I sincerely hope you will remain connected in some way to your university. Maasai Mara University is and always will be a place of interaction among extraordinary and diverse people, so please take advantage of the many opportunities to be active and engaged members of our alumni community.

Congratulations, our newest alumni!

I encourage all of you to recognize the tremendous significance of your achievements in making the transition from student to graduate

MESSAGE FROM

THE DEPUTY VICE CHANCELLOR (ACADEMIC, RESEARCH & STUDENT AFFAIRS)

Prof. Almadi Obere, PhD.
Ag. DVC (Academic, Research & Student Affairs)

Graduation is the climax of our efforts, dedication and faith toward a course that we cherish. Indeed, we look back and congratulate ourselves for putting a smile on each of the faces who have come to witness this great day.

On behalf of academic division, I congratulate our well trained graduands for the success. It is a demonstration of your academic ability and unwavering dedication to your lifelong ambition of being an important person to mankind. You have proved yet again that the previous successes were not flukes. We smile with you as you smile with your friends and all those who cherish you.

To the parents, I thank you for believing in us to act for you as foster parents for the period. I can assure you without any fear of contradiction that we are returning into your house hold your loved one in one piece though sharper, bolder and ready for all the challenges life will throw around. I congratulate you for choosing to invest in knowledge more so recognizing that however expensive it is, certainly it is cheaper than ignorance.

As you achieve this feat, do remember that this is the beginning of another phase in life. I implore you to remember not only all you learnt in class in Maasai Mara University, but also experiences you gathered within the environs of the same. Don't turn your back on your Alma Mata and friends as they all provide important life skills and networks needed for the next phase of your life.

Once again I wish the graduands all the best as they get the powers to read and do all that appertains to their training.

"I congratulate you for choosing to invest in knowledge more so recognizing that however expensive it is, certainly it is cheaper than ignorance"

MESSAGE FROM
THE DEPUTY VICE CHANCELLOR (ADMINISTRATION, FINANCE & PLANNING)

Prof. Simon Ole Seno, PhD.
DVC (Administration, Finance & Planning)

The graduation ceremony of any University is the highlight of its academic calendar. I therefore wish to thank all of you for gracing this occasion and making it all the more meaningful for our graduands.

As we celebrate the University's 4th Graduation Ceremony, I would like to congratulate the graduands. You have worked hard and your parents, families, government and sponsors have sacrificed much to get you here. We acknowledge the support from the University's Council; without their strong support, the University could not have come this far and without their support, it will not be able to go far into the future. The graduands today are a result of commitment by Maasai Mara University to the provision of quality education; I commend their hard work, perseverance, dedication and every effort they have had to put in the course of their studies.

To the graduands, you carry the flag of a global and unique University. Make the University proud through your contributions, especially by being hard working, innovative, committed and ethical in your future work and leadership. I invite you to take a continuing interest in your University and as a global citizen, join hands to contribute to the development of the world you live in.

The Administration, Finance and Planning (AF&P) division exists to support the academic programs at the University through provision of high quality support services and also ensure a conducive working and learning environment for all. The division handles all matters pertaining to administration, finance and planning.

The Division through its Human Resource Sub-division has also continued to oversee and ensure that the University attracts, recruits and retains qualified staff who are not only professionals but extremely knowledgeable in their areas. Through its Finance and Planning sub-divisions, it continues to support and provide services to customers in both administration and academic affairs thereby improving service delivery through good corporate governance, prudent management of financial resources, significant development in infrastructure, development of training and research facilities, equipment and rolling out the Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) system this financial year.

The success of the University has been as a result of our able Management and Senate and the committed and competent members of staff. I would like to thank them all for the commitment in supporting our students to undertake their studies successfully.

We have prepared you to participate in the social, political and economic spheres of your society and the global world. We expect you to enhance Maasai Mara University brand and be our ambassadors. Congratulations!

"We have prepared you to participate in the social, political and economic spheres of your society and the global world"

MESSAGE FROM

THE REGISTRAR ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Dr. Otieno F. Onyango, PhD
Registrar, Academic Affairs

As we celebrate the fourth graduation ceremony since Maasai Mara University (MMU) got its charter in 2013, my deepest appreciation and congratulations goes to the graduands. I appreciate you because of your resilience, persistence and the focus you maintained to achieve the ultimate prize in your academic journey that is bestowed upon you today. I congratulate you for attaining the various degrees and diplomas in the year 2016 which is a leap year! You are therefore our first leap-year graduands, a first of its kind, 'leaplings' of some sort.

While at the University, you acquired relevant knowledge to enable you make contributions for the betterment of your counties, the country, and the world at large. As the old saying goes "knowledge is power"; however, knowledge can only be power and of value if put to constructive use. This means, every thought, idea, or skill must be given energy in a deliberate and consistent manner to produce tangible results. Even the Bible from the book of Matthew 7:16 avers: "you will know them by their fruits. Grapes are not gathered from thorn bushes nor figs from thistels, are they?" Maasai Mara University, through its various schools has empowered you with not only the knowledge, but also the right attitudes, discipline, confidence and character from its rich menu of activities that supported the various curricula you followed. Be our best ambassadors!

Today we release you into the labour market very confident that prospective employers will have a better pool of workers to choose from, if you decide to join existing enterprises/organizations. Otherwise, we encourage you to be job creators. Extend your imaginative faculty to the ideas that will pop up from your mind and see them fulfilled. Do not ignore ideas whenever they come up, for they will define you from within and move you into the uncharted waters where true riches lie and wait. Please endeavour to be creative. If you can blend the knowledge you have gained into fresh combinations to produce a new product into the market you are creative; associating ideas with other intangible objects of the mind to improve efficiency or performance of something is another avenue of creative exploits. All the best.

"Extend your imaginative faculty to the ideas that will pop up from your mind and see them fulfilled"

"You have truly demonstrated your search for knowledge and skills development in order to inspire, motivate and transform people's lives positively"

MESSAGE FROM

THE FINANCE OFFICER

Graduation is a time to celebrate achievements that have made you scale the heights of academia. This is a time to also celebrate your parents and guardians and lecturers all those who helped you be who you are today.

Your achievement is because of their shoulders and unwavering support that places you a cut above the rest. As you enter a new chapter in your lives ensure that you become transformative in your society. University education is a key to these transformative ideas; view yourselves as employers, social entrepreneurs and for sure you will be the ambassadors of your alma mater-Maasai Mara University. Congratulations on your graduation.

"As you enter a new chapter in your lives ensure that you become transformative in your society"

MESSAGE FROM

THE DEAN OF STUDENTS

I wish to take this opportunity to congratulate all the graduands who ultimately will be part of Maasai Mara University alumni in our Fourth graduation ceremony. Indeed, you have a reason to rejoice.

The Dean of Student's Office is primarily concerned with student's welfare from the time they enter into the university to the time they graduate.

The office also handles matters related to Students Organization of Maasai Mara University (SOMMU), Wardenship, students' conduct and discipline and largely co-operates with the public on matters affecting students. The office also has a competent staff who provide counselling services to all staff and students when there is such a need.

Maasai Mara University has a strong sporting relationship with the following universities' sporting Associations: Western Kenya Universities Sports Association (WEKUSA) and Kenya Universities Sports Association (KUSA). We also take pride in our own internal competitions which enhance interaction among students. These are normally organized under the banner of inter-school Games and Sports Competitions.

Maasai Mara University takes pride of being a source of encouragement to students who have or intend to form professional clubs which help in the advancement and sharing of knowledge. Some of the clubs include: Maasai Mara University Accounting Students Association (MMUASA), Students in Free Enterprise (SIFE), Chama cha Kiswahili cha Maasai Mara University (CHAKIMA), Christian Union, SDA, Catholic Students Association (CSA) and Muslims Association among others.

MESSAGE FROM

THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARIAN

Ms. Nancy Kimile
Ag University Librarian

The Maasai Mara University Library would like to take this opportunity to pass our hearty congratulations to all our graduands. You have achieved an academic success that comes with great opportunities in life.

The library as the heart of the university is committed to support, educational and research needs of the University community (students, faculty, researchers and administrative staff) through provision of information services that are designed to facilitate access to quality information and learning by reaching out to users. To this end, the library provides a wide range of information resources available through the library web-page that provides access to the MMU Institutional repository. The MMU Institutional repository provides access to a wealth of information and knowledge from the Maasai Mara academic community such as teaching and non-teaching staff publications, PHD and Masters theses and dissertations, students' projects, past papers and a wide range of e-resources among others. This is in addition to diverse print resources and non-book media available in the library. We are now able to share information with our users through our face book page – mmulibrary/facebook.

The entire library is proud of you and all you accomplishments. We wish you success on all your future endeavors and always remember "knowledge is Power" and sharing it leads to creativity and innovations.

MESSAGE FROM

THE LEGAL OFFICER

Counsel Alfred O. Nyabochwa
Legal Officer

The legal services mandate is that of providing legal advice to all stake holders within the University and also ensure that the University operates in compliance with the constitution, the University Act 2012 and other laws that govern the provision of higher education in Kenya. The office also participates in the preparation of the legal instruments that govern the University.

As we celebrate a very special day in the University calendar, I take this opportunity to sincerely congratulate all graduands who have strived to reach this far. It is your hard work and sleepless nights that have made this day great.

I have no doubt that your stay in this Institution has been fulfilling, rewarding and enriching in tandem with your aspiration. As you go out there to join the labour market, I urge you to continue being good ambassador of Maasai Mara University. Congratulations to all of you.

THE OMBUDSMAN

Dr. Alexander Meitamei
Ombudsman

Our sole mandate is receiving and resolving customer complaints. To achieve this, we have established a complaints handling infrastructure, built capacity among our staff members and created awareness among our clients. Our annual scores by CAJ average 90% and have greatly improved our national ranking among other Universities. We envision leadership in provision of customer driven services by acting as an avenue for launching complaints, compliments, suggestions and preferences. A major hallmark of our success is a decrease in incidences of violent student riots occasioned by the availability of an avenue for airing and resolving grievances. We look forward to uphold this performance as we cross over the New Year 2017. We take this opportunity to congratulate all our 2016 grandaunts for having successfully completed their studies and wish them success and happiness. We urge them to strive to make the world a better place to live in using their acquired knowledge and skills.

DEANS OF SCHOOLS

SCHOOL OF SCIENCE AND INFORMATION SCIENCES

I salute all the graduands of 2016. I am proud of the graduands of the school especially for their performance which has been starling as compared to other year's graduands. On behalf of the school I would like to wish them best of lack as they enter the job market and let them know that there are our ambassadors.

The school of science has continued to scale the academic heights through collaboration with Nottingham University in US, The University of Bayreuth in Germany, Wuhan Botanical Garden, and Chinese academy of sciences. As a school, we are in the process of introducing chemical engineering with one of our partners and this will start by jointly offering out 4th year students in September, 2017 a block course on technical chemistry. Currently, the school has rolled out several Masters and PhD programmes and I urge the graduands and the public at large to consider our school as a school of choice due to the fact that our classes are small and our staff are very motivated.

The school is involved in several research areas including but not limited to waste water recycling, non-water filters, carbon non-tubes and their application in water cleaning, formation and characterization of non-particles and screening their effect on bacteria and fungi.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

I wish to congratulate the 2016 graduands and welcome you to the school of Education to celebrate with us, as we send teachers into the work place.

The school of Education is that part of community specifically devoted to the education of student scholars. The School is a prime example in a community of faculty of teachers and scholars within Maasai Mara University community guiding students through their academic experiences.

We place special emphasis on our alumni community of MMU, potential students and their families as well as our faculty. In this issue and in the issues to follow we highlight the connections between our faculty and student scholars and celebrate their academic, intellectual and pedagogical achievements, both individually and collectively.

We live in troubling and complex times, now more than ever, we are inspired to prepare teachers, scholars, and community leaders with the knowledge and dedication to address the challenges faced by our students and our education systems. As a school, we found our own commitment to social justice and societal transformation reflected in the school's mission and woven into the fabric of our courses, research activities, and projects in local schools and communities. Our staff members are at the centre of MMU; they create and propel the unique education that we provide. SOE takes pride in its tradition of outstanding teaching. The scholarship and exceptional teaching of our faculty members is one of the reasons that prospective students choose the school. Lecturers inspire advice and guide the students through their course work.

The process of strategic analysis, strategic choice and strategic implementation is explored in considerable detail. This requires recognizing and using the school's core competences and its capacity to respond imaginatively to its environment. Through strategy, the leadership team, an analysis of the school as organisation, its values and a requirement for a rigorous and honest evaluation of performance. This has lead to an examination of team roles and performance, the wider school self evaluation reaches out to understanding the school culture and the school's capacity to develop as a learning organisation. Strategic management determines the unique school vision and develops the school's capacity to make strategic choices. That is why we can proudly say: "It is in the School of Education where we shape the future and transform the present."

I congratulate the graduates and urge them to step out and make a difference in their work environments and areas of specializations. I also welcome them back to join postgraduate programmes and the alumnae. Thank you and God bless you all.

SCHOOL OF TOURISM & NATURAL RESOURCES MANAGEMENT

Prof. Aggrey Thuo, PhD.
Dean, School of Tourism & Natural Resource Mgt.

The School has three academic departments: Environmental Studies, Geography & Agriculture, Forestry and Wildlife Management and Tourism and Hospitality Management.

The School offers PhD, Masters, Bachelor degrees and diploma programmes. The following three (3) PhD programmes are offered: Environmental Studies, Environmental Planning and Management and Land Resource Management).

At masters level, the curricula is broad as manifest in the following seven Masters programmes: Environmental Studies, Environmental Planning and Management, Land Resource Management, Wildlife Resource Management, Tourism Management, Geography, Forestry Management.

The undergraduate programmes cater for diverse student needs. We offer the following eleven Bachelors programmes: Urban and Regional Planning, Environmental Management, Animal Health and Production, Earth Sciences, Geography, Environmental Studies (Biology and Health), Parks, Recreation and Leisure, Wildlife Management, Forestry Ecosystem Management, Tourism Management and Hospitality and Hotel Management. Finally, the School offers the following three Diploma Programmes: Tourism and Wildlife Management, Animal Health and Production and Hotels and Restaurant Management.

The study programmes focus on preparing students for careers with environmental management agencies, urban planning authorities, hospitality industries, tourism operations and organizations, forestry and agriculture, livestock sectors. The school also, as one of our primary commitments and focus through Mara Resource and Outreach Centre, run community Outreach programmes and activities. The School has played a key role in ensure that Maasai Mara University is a recognized Regional Centre of Expertise (RCE).

There are a number of organizations that the School, through the University, is collaborating with, including Clemson University, Northern Arizona University of Forestry, University of Maryland in Wildlife and Environmental Education, University of Chinese Academy of Sciences and Aarhus University. These collaborations provide opportunities for staff exchanges and for our students to travel abroad for Graduate Studies.

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS & ECONOMICS

Dr. Maurice O. Ombok
Ag. Dean, School of Business & Economics

The school of Business and Economics hosts the departments of Business Management and Economics. Over the years it has grown to be the second largest school in the university in terms of student population. In fact, this year it registered the highest number of first years. We have managed to go this far due to the popularity of our courses, competence of our lecturers and support from the management.

In response to market demand we have revamped and improved on our traditional courses. We are also proud to have added into our fold programmes in the areas of Financial Economics, Economic Policy Analysis, Agribusiness, Entrepreneurship and Project Management. As we had promised the school will not tire in its mission of exploring more exiting frontier programmes in Business and Economics.

Once again we join friends in congratulating our graduands as we assure the world that our products will continue to provide that missing link you yearn for. Our brand is destined to greatness because we have spent our energies and intellectual resource to provide only the best.

To our alumni, we are proud of you. Remember to be our good ambassadors as you keep the Maasai Mara brand shining.

SCHOOL OF ARTS & SOCIAL SCIENCES

Established in 2011, the School of Arts and Social Sciences has expanded to offer 13 undergraduate and 10 postgraduate programs. It also offers a number of Certificate and Diploma programs which are a foundation for further studies. The school currently has a student population of about 1700 students and 50 fulltime academic staff. This year we are proud to graduate about 250 students from the three departments of Media, Film and Communication, Languages, Linguistics and Culture and Social Studies.

The three departments house various programs such as Bachelor of Arts in Community Development, Criminology and Penology, History, Social Work, Sociology, Philosophy, Political Science and Public Administration, Language and Communication, Literature, Theatre and Film, Kiswahili and Journalism. We also offer Bachelor of Science in Communication and Journalism and Communication and Public Relations. Postgraduate programs include Master of Arts in Communication and Public Relations, History, Linguistics, Literature, Kiswahili, Sociology, Philosophy, Public Policy and Analysis. PhD in Linguistics, Literature and Kiswahili are also offered in the school.

The philosophy of the school is to equip our students with life skills that are necessary in the fulfilment of the mission of Maasai Mara University using modalities that encourage critical, creative and innovative thinking. We are committed to producing highly professional, self-motivated and directed graduates able to contribute to national development and the general welfare of humanity. We join the entire nation in congratulating our graduands and wishing them success in their future endeavours.

SCHOOL OF NURSING

Prof. Dr. Wycliffe Wanzala, PhD,
AMATINER, MACSE, MISE, FASI.

Co-ordinator, School of Nursing Sciences

The School of Nursing Sciences is at an advanced stage of implementation by the University. Notwithstanding its early fragile stages of growth and development, the School of Nursing Sciences would like to get associated with the 4th Graduation Ceremony of Maasai Mara University and take this opportunity to congratulate the graduands on this special occasion for their great achievements, an indication of an excellent academic commitment. This is a significant milestone for the University and is a true testimony to the role it plays in education, research, consultancy, innovation and development in the society. We look forward to our continued association, support and once again, extend our warmest congratulations and wishes of success and prosperity to the graduands.

UNIVERSITY DIRECTORATES

DIRECTORATE OF GENDER, EQUITY & CULTURE

Prof. Tabitha Sewe, PhD
Director, Gender, Equity & Culture

The Director of Gender, Equity and Culture congratulates the graduating class of 2016, thanks them for bringing forth and practicing what is best in themselves. This is the first step towards the creation of a sense of happiness. Happiness and virtue complement each other.

The Directorate has continued to promote Gender Equity and Equality at Maasai Mara University by addressing: gender inequalities where they exist; Female Genital Mutilation (FGM) through “respect for change” interaction; and zero tolerance for gender based violence at the work place.

Our most immediate concern at the moment is to ensure that curriculum review and development of new programmes at Maasai Mara University are gender sensitive as this will contribute to national development needs.

DIRECTORATE OF QUALITY ASSURANCE & PERFORMANCE CONTRACTING

The Directorate of Quality Assurance and Performance Contracting (QA & PC) is responsible for overall setting, implementation, monitoring and evaluation of academic quality standards using quality assessment tools, standards and procedures based on internationally accepted standards such as ISO 9001:2008 as well as the Commission for University Education (CUE). The directorate carries out its functions through carrying out regular quality audits and self-assessments to ensure continuous improvement, coordination the development, review and validation of academic programmes and their subsequent accreditation with the Commission for University Education. The directorate is further responsible for monitoring effectiveness in teaching and carrying out student evaluation of lecturers.

Performance Contracting (PC) roles of the directorate involve coordinating setting up mutually agreed and negotiated departmental and sectional targets, preparing a draft University PC, negotiating the contract with the Ministry of Education, vetting, signing, monitoring and evaluation of PC targets in line with the PC Cycle Guidelines from the relevant ministries, government departments and agencies (MDAs). One of our principal targets during the current 13th PC Cycle (2016/2017) is to develop a comprehensive Quality Assurance Policy.

DIRECTORATE OF PSSP

Prof Francis Mburu, PhD
Director, PSSP

Maasai Maasai Mara University established the Privately Sponsored Students Programme (PSSP) programme to facilitate access to University education in line with the government Vision 2030. PSSP in general supports the government policy of improving access, equity and relevance of university education by providing learning opportunities to those who are eligible. PSSP performs the following specific functions: supports the University mission of providing quality education through innovative teaching, research and consultancy; enhance the university capacity to attract and retain staff by contributing to staff welfare; and enhance corporate social responsibility of the university.

The Directorate manages PSSP activities on day to day basis including recruitment of PSSP students, marketing of PSSP academic programmes and short courses. Our mandate is also to advise Departments and Schools on demand for existing and potential short courses. We have innovative market-driven academic programmes at Certificate, Diploma, Undergraduate, Postgraduate Diploma, Master's and Doctoral levels housed in five schools. The programmes are offered at the Main Campus in Narok and satellite campuses located at Narok, Nairobi and Kisii Town. We have three intakes per Year-January, April/May and August/September. The programmes are offered on a variety of modes depending on preference of students, location, and nature of programme: full time, evening, weekend, School based over the holidays and Open, Distance and E-Learning (ODEL).

The Directorate also offers Short Training Courses intended to enhance the capacity of participants to undertake their tasks especially in County governments and private companies. Some of the short courses that are offered targeting middle class clients include: Middle Level Managers Course, Training of Trainers (ToT), Women in Management Course, Finance for Non-Finance Managers Course, Management of Small Enterprises, How to Prepare a Business Plan, Grant Proposal Writing, Fundraising and resource Mobilization, Effective Management of Credit Schemes and Gender and Development Course. The Directorate also designs and runs tailor-made courses for organizational clients based on their specific needs.

DIRECTORATE OF POSTGRADUATE STUDIES

Prof. Edward K. Tanui, PhD.
Ag. Director, Board Post
Graduate Studies

The Directorate of Postgraduate Studies (DPS) was established in September 2014 under the Maasai Mara University Statutes. The aim of the Directorate is to manage and coordinate all postgraduate studies in the University.

DPS major responsibilities are to develop, support and review postgraduate programmes in order to meet the needs of the University, Kenya and the world. The Directorate also plays an oversight role in postgraduate students' admission in collaboration with the relevant schools and monitors standards and maintains accurate students' records. The Directorate of Postgraduate studies is therefore expected to provide the requisite environment for graduate studies as it functions as an administrative and support unit for all graduate students for University.

The Board of Postgraduate studies is composed of active and astute members committed to excellence in management of postgraduate studies. The purpose is to provide dynamic teaching and research. In addition, the DPS board is expected to facilitate, disseminate research findings through conferences and publications. The directorate therefore ensures that before graduation, all masters and PhD students publish papers in refereed journals.

The Board therefore wishes to congratulate the Class of 2016 on their graduation and as they receive the "powers to read and do all that appertains to this degree." Be fruitful wherever you go and may you be blessed abundantly. We also welcome all prospective postgraduate students from Maasai Mara University and the world. God Bless You.

DIRECTORATE OF TIMETABLING AND EXAMINATIONS

Mr. John Maera
Ag. Director, Timetabling

The Directorate is responsible for the smooth running of the University by ensuring that the Teaching Timetable is prepared before commencement of Lectures and the Examination timetable is released at least one month to the start of examinations.

The Directorate also facilitates the preparation of University Examinations by organizing external examination of draft question papers and results as scheduled by Senate. The processing, packaging, safe-keeping and distribution of the end of semester examinations is the responsibility of the Directorate. At the end of every year the Directorate coordinates the printing and issuance of academic certificates to all graduates of Maasai Mara University. Additionally, the allocation of lecture rooms for academic and non-academic University activities is regulated by this Directorate.

In summary, good timetabling, confidential and timely production of University examinations and delivery of quality academic certificates to our graduates is our concern as a Directorate.

DIRECTORATE OF ENDOWMENT FUND

Dr. James S. Nampushi PhD.
Ag. Director, Endowment Fund

The MMU-Endowment Fund was established by a resolution of the Maasai Mara University (MMU) Council. The Directorate envisions creating collaborations through private and public partnerships with individuals, businesses, institutions and corporations to enhance income-generating projects to help us supplement the government –limited funding.

The Directorate's purpose is to seek new sustainable approaches of mobilizing resources for the University through the endowment fund. The endowment focus is to create a continuous revenue flow to support the University operations.

The vision of the directorate is to make the University a center for mining new knowledge to expand its teaching, research and skills development to address the current issues affecting society.

DIRECTORATE OF LINKAGES, COLLABORATION & MARKETING

Mr. Lankeu Reson
Ag. Director, Linkages,
collaborations & Marketing

Welcome to Maasai Mara University, Directorate of Linkages, Collaborations and Marketing. MMU is part of the emerging systems of global higher education through innovative strategies, linkages and collaborations with other Institutions locally and internationally.

Currently the University has more than ten strategic international links in Africa, America, Europe and Asia. Some of the notable linkages include Clemson University- U.S.A, University of Pau-France, Regents University- London, China –Africa centre for Research and Education, Wuhan botanical garden - China, and Arhus University- Denmark.

The Directorate's major activities include: faculty and staff exchange, joint research and teaching, International conferences and academic meetings among others. This makes Maasai Mara University, truly world class University of choice.

Maasai Mara University offers a variety of unmatched academic opportunities for international students interested in pursuing courses in business, sciences, tourism, natural resource management, education and social sciences. Our students enjoy a serene learning environment in our beautiful location within easy reach of world famous attractions such as the Maasai Mara National Game reserve renown for the spectacular migrations of the wild beast – the 7th wonder of the world.

As a fast growing young entrepreneurial University of the 21st century Maasai Mara University prides itself in expert staff and state-of-the-art learning resources to develop global citizens equipped with the essential skills and experience for an exciting rewarding career in their respective chosen fields.

At Maasai Mara University we aim to create and strengthen mutually beneficial relationships with organizations/institutions to develop a unique institution of higher learning in the tourist hub of East Africa. To this effect, we are open to work together with Foundations Global Leaders International, NGOs, Research Institutes and Industry to promote research/knowledge in new frontiers in health sciences, climate change, mining sustainable energy and sport science.

Maasai Mara University welcomes support and initiatives to build a great vision of a unique institution that provide relevant and community focused programmes. Our alumni remain an integral part of Maasai Mara University family. I encourage 2016 Class to become ambassadors of Maasai Mara University wherever they will be.

On behalf of the Directorate I wish to congratulate our esteemed grandaunts for the year 2016 a Merry Christmas and happy New Year 2017.

CENTRE FOR INNOVATION, NEW AND RENEWABLE ENERGY

Dr. Aloys Mosima Osano, PhD
Renewable Energy Chemistry
Ag. Chairman

The world faces two serious challenges: energy scarcity and pollution. Energy consumption contributes immensely to massive environmental pollution. All University activities geared towards food processing, operational management and improvement of academia require energy. Energy utilization and waste volumes are rapidly increasing as the student population and University operations increases. This has resulted into high unmanageable energy bills and uncontrollable emissions. To curb fuel combustion emissions, lower energy costs and improve Energy Efficiency, requires that research and innovations into production and use of renewable energy reduces emissions immensely. However, without management and supervision of varied kinds of energy will not yield much of institutional emission and cost reductions. It is in this view that Maasai Mara University set up a center for Innovation, New and Renewable Energy tasked with the following:

- i. Develop and periodically revise the university Innovations, Energy, Energy Management, Renewable Energy & Energy Efficiency policies in alignment to National and Global trends.
- ii. Identify, Develop and manage the new and renewable energy from Waste biomass, plastic wastes, Waste Heat conversions, Solar and wind with a view of transforming the University energy consumption regimes.
- iii. Identify and incubate all innovations emerging from research activities within the university.
- iv. Optimize energy usage within and around the University while mitigating climate Change in view of cutting down recurrent expenditure and enhancing the institution's entry into the Global energy markets through feed-in-tariffs and carbon Credits.
- v. Conduct research and training activities on new and renewable energy technologies following both local and international trends.
- vi. Mobilize resources for the Centre research, innovations and Renewable Energy Project Developments.

Currently, we have an ongoing successfully funded research projects to tune of Ksh. 7.0 million a joint Kenya South Africa research initiative on "Monitoring Emissions of PAHs from Domestic Renewable and Nonrenewable Fuel Combustion in Urban and Rural Kenya".

DIRECTORS OF CAMPUSES

NAIROBI CAMPUS

Dr. Nancy Ayodi - Mokaya
Director, Nairobi Campus

The Nairobi Campus was established in November 2010 at Kenya Education Management Institute (KEMI) which is on 6th Parklands Avenue approximately 5KM from the Nairobi City Central Business District. Initially, programmes on Campus were designed to take place on Saturdays only in order to take care of the majority of the working population who are engaged at their places of work during the week. However, with the current need for education, the mode of study is likely to change in 2017 and moving forward.

The Campus offers various programmes convenient to the clients as the classes are taught mainly on Saturdays and during the school holidays. This mode of study presents Nairobi Campus as the best choice convenient to the ever-growing number of the working-class population in Nairobi and teachers who learn during school holidays. The catchment area of the campus is mainly Nairobi County and its neighboring counties of Nakuru, Kiambu, Machakos, Kitui, Embu, Meru among others. The Campus endeavors to provide quality university education through innovative teaching, research, supervision and mentorship to her large pool of PhD and Masters Students.

The following are the academic programmes on offer at the campus: PhD. Kiswahili, PhD Literature, PhD Educational Administration and Management, PhD Curriculum Studies, PhD in Educational Psychology, PhD in Educational Guidance and Counseling, PhD in Curriculum Instruction and Media, Masters of Education in Educational Administration, Masters of Education in Educational Psychology, Masters of Education in Guidance and Counseling, Masters of Education in Special Needs Education and Masters of Education in Early Childhood Development Education.

Besides the Postgraduate programmes currently offered by the Campus mainly from the School of Education and School of Arts and Social Sciences, plans are underway to offer Certificate, Diploma, and Bachelors programmes from these two schools and other faculties of the University: School of Business and Economics, School of Tourism and Natural Resources and School of Science and Information Sciences. Visit the Campus to get a copy of the University brochure to enroll for a course of your choice and in which you qualify or contact us on Mobile Phone-0732 382 999, Office line 041-2002344; Email: nairobicampus@mmarau.ac.ke

NAROK TOWN CAMPUS

Mr. Augustine M. Kara
Ag. Director, Narok
Town Campus

It is with excitement and pride that I join Maasai Mara fraternity in congratulating our excellent graduands. It is indeed very fulfilling to witness students graduate after a period of hard work. I am convinced that during your studies, you acquired desirable graduate attributes that will contribute to the quality of your life. It is my hope that you will use the skills to transform our country and the world at large. I urge you to be our loyal ambassadors out there by providing service to humanity generously. Always jealously guard the name of your university by pursuing excellence in your endeavours. Remember, My Education My Future, My University My Pride. Market the university through positive word of mouth communication to the people you will interact with.

Town Campus is located in Oltalet Mall in Narok Town. The Campus has a rich menu of market driven academic programmes starting from Certificate to Post Graduate. Through the Certificate and Diploma programmes on offer, students are presented with a real time opportunity to progressively improve their well-being and eventually pursue a Bachelor's degree that they thought was a reserve for others. We express our commitment to provide quality educational service to students who are our primary customers. On behalf of the students, staff and the entire Narok Town Campus fraternity, I take this opportunity to heartily congratulate all the 2016 graduands for successful completion of their studies. Hongera sana!!

MESSAGE FROM

INFORMATION COMMUNICATION & TECHNOLOGY (ICT)

Mr. Nooseli Moses
Information & Communication Technology

The Information and Communication Technology (ICT) department of Maasai Mara University congratulates the 2016 graduands. We are glad to celebrate with you and your families for your achievement. We are glad to have supported you in your academic endeavors.

The ICT department provides an innovative and cutting edge technology in the automation of all University functions. This has seen the department implement an Enterprise Resource Planning System (ERP). This system not only improves efficiency but also cut down cost.

The Internet connection to the University is through fiber optic connectivity and this has seen the University provide an internationally accepted internet bandwidth ration.

The ICT department offers wireless internet to all students and the department is in the process of establishing four more computer laboratories after seeking successfully a donation of 400 computers.

Our mission is to secure a paperless Maasai Mara University and consequently save the University on operational costs. We believe this will improve the relationship between the institution's internal and external publics and raise the profile of our University.

MESSAGE FROM

PROCUREMENT OFFICER

Esther Kisivuli
Ag. Procurement Officer

The Procurement unit plays a significant role in supporting the University achieve its strategic objectives through efficient, effective and economical purchase of goods and services. To achieve this, the Procurement unit has to ensure that all procurements to be carried out have been planned for with realistic times taken into account for the preparation of procurement requirements and allotment of the budget.

To ensure economical, quality and timely supplies the unit adheres to the Public Procurement and Asset Disposal Act 2015. In line with the Government directive of allocating 30% of the total procurements to the marginalized groups specifically the women, youth and persons with disabilities. The unit allocates the required quota to the special interest groups. On my behalf and that of the procurement unit, I wish all the graduands well and prosperity in their next course of action.

MESSAGE FROM

LIAISON OFFICER

Mr. Seleila Ole Mwanik
Head of Liaison Section

The University Management established the Liaison Office in May 2016 to foster and promote a positive image of the University through strong relationships between the University and its various Stakeholders.

The responsibilities of the Liaison Office include the following: Liaising between the University and partnering Organizations, to facilitate communication and coordination of their activities; representing the University in formal meetings with stakeholders, government agencies and partnering organizations; ensure coherent and accurate information is projected on the University; participating in conflict resolution between the University and other stakeholders and coordinating the University's corporate social responsibility activities, among other roles.

On corporate social responsibility activities, Maasai Mara University established among other initiatives, a scholarship and bursary fund where from 2015/2016 to the current Financial Year, five (5) needy students from the local community were awarded full scholarships. The University also plans to donate beds to Leshuta Primary School in Osupuko Division of Narok County, to equip a newly constructed dormitory. This is in appreciation of the community's good gesture of donating 250 acres of land to the University.

I wish to congratulate the Class of 2016 Graduands and wish them success in their future endeavours. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to you all.

LABOUR RELATIONS

MESSAGE FROM

UNIVERSITIES ACADEMIC STAFF UNION (UASU)- MAASAI MARA UNIVERSITY CHAPTER

Faith Njeru,
Secretary Ge

This is another auspicious occasion we witness a spectacular graduation of various scholars. On behalf of UASU Maasai Mara chapter, I congratulate all the graduands for the great achievement.

The union is grounded in education that liberates. Hence it is the voice of dons that not only enhances industrial democracy but articulate and defend the rights and the dignity of the lecturers. We underscore mature interactive diplomatic dialogues. We endeavour to mentor visionary leadership. We are committed to professionalism, interpersonal relationships at all levels and ensure enhancement of good practices. The union leadership strives to be beyond reproach for we are the epitome of integrity, decorum and mentors of posterity.

Our visibility has continued to scale great heights. We take great pride to report that our chapter is still a national role model after we ably negotiated for the correct national CBA payment. The latter is the benchmark for the future national UASU CBA negotiations. We are glad to report that we have completed negotiating for the second CBA 2012-2013 and we are now drafting the proposal for the third CBA 2013-2017. We also have participated in the drafting of the first scheme of service for the university. All the above has been achieved through dialogue and negotiations with the management and visionary leadership. The Chapter has embraced other staff unions, KUSU and KUDHEIA, with the aim of enhancing the Maasai Mara University fraternity. We aspire to keep on setting chapterial and national agenda in various discourses.

Finally, our exemplary leadership is marketable to other chapters who are constantly seeking out mentorship. This national recognition is a big boost to our University.

To graduands, upholds our motto: Enge'no e Puaan (Knowledge for prosperity) as you go to the world to provide exemplary leadership.

MESSAGE FROM

KENYA UNIVERSITIES STAFF UNION (KUSU)-MAASAI MARA UNIVERSITY CHAPTER

Dr. Antony L. Yiaile (MPSK, MKPA).
Branch Secretary, KUSU

On behalf of the University administrative staff represented by the Kenya University Staff Union (KUSU) am delighted to congratulate the 2016 graduands on the 4th Graduation ceremony. It is a culmination of many days of dedication, patients and hard work in your torturous academic endeavor. I also wish to congratulate the entire university workforce for the dedication which enabled the graduands to achieve this important milestone in academic life.

As you embark on your future, I encourage you to be a responsible citizenry geared towards building our country Kenya and the world at large. I also implore on you to continuously work towards higher academic achievements in your future.

The Union wishes to underscore the mutual engagement with the University management towards enhancing good industrial harmony. Key amongst these is the implementation of 2013-2017 Collective Bargaining Agreement and approval of the Scheme of Service by the University Council. We have also embraced our sister UNIONS, UASU and KUDHEIHA in enhancing mutual industrial relations. This behooves on us to work as a team towards attainment of a world class University.

MESSAGE FROM

KENYA UNION OF DOMESTIC, HOTEL, EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS, HOSPITALS & ALLIED WORKERS
(KUDHEHIA)

Mr. Jackson T. Nganae
Shopsteward

On behalf of the Non-Teaching Staff (KUDHEIHA), I am delighted to witness this important occasion of the Fourth Maasai Mara University graduation ceremony. Indeed, it has been a long journey for graduands, parents and lecturers. I therefore take this opportunity to congratulate you for your hard work and determination towards these achievements.

We celebrate this joyous occasion; we take pride in your achievements. Remember that you are being ushered into a world of enormous opportunities and challenges. However, I have the conviction that with the level of preparation you have been taken through at Maasai Mara University, you will navigate successfully. I then wish you all the best that life can offer in your future endeavours.

Finally, we as unions, the representatives of the staff of this great institution we pledge our continuing support to work with other stakeholders to make life easier for the students in our institution.

Congratulations on your graduation!

STUDENT LEADERSHIP

STUDENTS' GOVERNING COUNCIL (SGC)

PRESIDENT OF SGC

Mr. Robert Too
SOMMU President

I congratulate our graduands on this auspicious occasion-the 4th graduation ceremony. I pass my profound gratitude to the university council, the management, the staff, the students' body and the entire Maasai Mara University fraternity. My sincere accolades also go to the families for supporting you.

Your achievement is a true testimony of the Swahili saying "chanda chema huvishwa pete". Your tireless and enthusiastic spirit in pursuit of the dreams of your childhood is finally yielding fruit. The dust of knowledge you have gathered is able to propel you to your desired destiny in your respective careers. Today the world is eagerly waiting for your expertise in your various fields.

Now today, even as you are given the powers to read, we urge you to be our good ambassadors across the globe. Add new synergy to the various organisations that you will join. The student body wish you well as you explore your abilities.

SECRETARY OF SGC

Let me take this opportunity to congratulate all the 2016 graduands for their commitment, hard work and persistence throughout their academic journey in Maasai Mara University. We all know that the things that are essential are acquired with little bother but it is the luxuries that call for toil and effort. Therefore, this is not time to look over the past but focus on the task ahead of you.

As you open up a new page of your life, remember if you shape up your life according to nature, you will never die poor but if you do it according to people's opinions, you will never be rich. As you celebrate this day, always be thankful to the Almighty God for His great care and love that he has bestowed upon you.

Finally, I would like to wish you a wonderful festive season and a happy new year. God bless.

SECRETARY, ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

KAMAU N. ELIAS
Secretary Academic Affairs

This marks the end of all the tireless work you have done since you knew the power bestowed in education. It has not been an easy task but through hard work, confidence and self-reliance you have made it to the end. I believe the skills, knowledge and wisdom imparted at Maasai Mara University shall be valuable to not only you but also the country as a whole. May you continue to chase your dreams and continue learning for I know that your dreams will take you to the corners of your smiles, to the highest of your hopes and more so to the windows of your opportunity.

In conclusion, I congratulate you for your academic achievement. May success always come your way in life. Happy Graduation. God bless you.

MESSAGE FROM

MAASAI MARA UNIVERSITY ALUMNI COORDINATOR

Prof. Dr. Wycliffe Wanzala, PhD,
AMATINER, MACSE, MISE, FASI.

Coordinator, Alumni Office

As we celebrate the 4th Graduation Ceremony of Maasai Mara University on Friday, 2nd December 2016, I am happy to note that the Alumni Association preparations are nearing completion.

The University committee to establish the Alumni Association has achieved the following: development of the constitution of the Alumni Association, development of the database of the Alumni and any of their corresponding contacts, made the stamp and logo at the Alumni Secretariat and have proposed the top management and office bearers at the Alumni Secretariat. We are installing the internet facility at the Alumni Secretariat, work is in progress to give a “new face” of the Alumni space on the University website and further form Alumni WhatsApp groups based on the academic programmes pursued while at the alma mater.

The main objective of the Alumni Association is to provide a forum through which the alumni of Maasai Mara University can participate in its governance and development activities in order to raise the profile and image of their alma mater as excellent ambassadors of the institution wherever they are. In addition, the Alumni Association will be a useful catchment for business opportunities, social welfare, mentorship programmes (such as students’ internships and apprenticeships) and an interactive forum to establish useful future linkages with members and other colleagues from all walks of life. Alumni Association is also anticipated to partner with the relevant stakeholders of alma mater in setting standards and quality assurance for curricula, education, research programmes and support alma mater advancement programmes.

Currently, we have a temporary secretariat under re-organization and in the process of preparing the launch of the Alumni Association. The Alumni Secretariat is currently busy recruiting members, collaborators, partners and other donors with a view to strengthening the university-industry relationship. We anticipate the Alumni Association to play major supportive roles to the alma mater and increase its national and international visibility in addition to bringing together graduates to share their experiences and become mentors to the student community.

We sincerely hope that the Alumni Association will support our alma mater in many ways, including its strategic vision, mission and mandates in order to continue making Maasai Mara University a world-class institution for higher learning, research and developing talents. We have only found the site for the foundation and made the architectural plan, we therefore anticipate the Alumni members to lay the foundation and build this beautiful home.

Finally, we invite all the Maasai Mara University graduates who have not yet joined the Alumni Association to register as members so as to tap into the benefits of interaction, bonding, collaboration, networking, partnerships and shared values amongst the members. Indeed, membership recruitment remains a fundamental agenda for the Alumni Association.

MAASAI MARA UNIVERSITY ALUMNI TSC STAFF AND MMU MA STUDENT

Name: Namkuru Ebby,

Education: BEd (Arts) (First class Honours), 2015

Currently pursuing MA, History (Maasai Mara University)

Occupation: Working for TSC, Kenya.

Congratulations to our newest Alumni, the class of 2016, your handwork and dedication has paid off immensely. As much as your achievements here are impressive, this success has not been realized solely by you. You have had the great support of your parents and other family members, your friends, the ever supportive Maasai Mara University faculty, staff and other students. Many of us here have also been supported financial donations from government and other well-wishers, we say a big THANK YOU to all of them for playing one part or the other towards this great achievement today. Finally, I am looking forward to the formation of MMU Alumni association to expand our prospect pool in various fields. I conclude with this quote: In response to those who say stop dreaming and face reality, I say keep dreaming and make realty - Kristian Kan. Congratulations and happy graduation class of 2016.

AUTOMOTIVE SALES CONSULTANT

Name: Raphael Munene

Occupation: Automotive Sales Consultant at Toyota Kenya – Nairobi

School: Business and Economics

My experience at Maasai Mara University was very enlightening and mind opening to new thoughts and ideas; especially as a student leader. It expanded my knowledge base and gave me more confidence. I joined with three goals in mind: one, to get good grades which I did; two, to become economically independent from my parents which I did by investing my HELB loan and other allowances; and three, to get a life partner. Well, the last item is still work in progress.

This institution is ranked among the best in the job market, in fact, employers are fascinated by this world-class name. I remember applying for a job at the end of my last semester and got the job three months before graduation. This is enough evidence that this university offers quality education that fits job requirements. In addition, I am grateful for the competitive edge at Maasai Mara University (MMU) in terms of academics, leadership and entrepreneurship. This gave me the best foundation for the competitive world that I am in right now.

I also take this opportunity to thank the ad hoc committee for the establishment of MMU Alumni Association and for successfully drafting a constitution. We hope that the university management adopts the report as well as the constitution to facilitate its launch next year. The class of 2016, the future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams. I hope your dreams take you to the corners of your smiles, to the highest of your hopes, to the windows of your opportunities, and to the most special places your heart has ever known. Well, follow your passion, it will lead you to your purpose. Congratulations!

MANAGER – INSURANCE INDUSTRY

Name: James K. Seneyia

Current Occupation: Branch manager, British American Insurance Company, Narok Branch.

It is another important milestone in the history of Maasai Mara, where a graduation heralds the award of degrees, diploma and certificate to a team of resilient, patient, hopeful and determined students who withstood challenges that came their way in this journey. I salute these fearless champions who beat all odds to make this achievement a reality. Worth mentioning is the sacrifice made by the university administration to ensure that those who toiled will harvest the fruits of hard work. Besides the challenges that were thrown on its way, the leadership of this great university rose this fundamental occasion to this feat worth.
